

Kindle / Kobo Cover

- sample was knit in 2 colours of Yeoman Cannele cotton; total 40 g
- pattern was slip stitch maze using Singer Card 9, changing colour every 2 rows
- sample gauge: 10 sts x 15 R at T7
- finished size was 11.4cm/4.5" wide x 18cm/7" long
- knit in 1 piece over 98 sts
- cast on with waste yarn and knit ravel cord from right to left; hang marker at centre
- COL, knit 2 rows with Col1 (navy)

- COL, RC000, set carriage to slip, release the punchcard, change to Col2 (white) and begin patterning
- change colours every 2 rows to RC104
- bring R1-R49 to hold with carriage set to hold; can switch to regular feeder arm for the rest
- knit 1 row with Col2 over L49-L1
- bind off these stitches; on sample I left a tail 4x the work and removed on waste yarn, then worked a row of slip crochet from the purl side

- on R1-R49, COL, RC000, T6, knit 30 rows with Col1, work a foldline, knit 30 rows and bind off as desired
- sample had a garter ridge foldline; knit 1 row with Col2, turn work on garter bar, knit 1 row with Col2, turn work on garter bar, changed to Col1 and continued band
- fold the piece in half, right sides together, and hang the bottom with 2 stitches on each needle
- knit 1 row with Col1 at T7 and bind off as desired
- mattress stitch side seam and band seams; fold the band to the inside and slip stitch in place; sew button on the band and work a loop to secure it

